FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

COLORADO DEFENSE LAWYER'S ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES COMMITTEE ORGANIZATIONAL MEETINGS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS ANNUAL MEETING

The Colorado Defense Lawyer's Association will be holding various committee organizational meetings and the Board of Directors Annual Meeting in September. CDLA has 15 different committees governing legal fields ranging from civil rights to general liability to worker's compensation.

Each committee holds annual organizational meetings in the fall to select new chair members, strategize about relevant legal issues impacting the committee, and to plan the committee's Continuing Legal Education seminars for the upcoming year. Committee meetings will be held at varying times and locations between September 1 and September 28, 2016. CDLA members are encouraged to attend the organizational meetings to offer their input on issues impacting their legal practice and to help in planning for the coming year. More information about the committees and dates, times and locations for the organizational meetings can be found on CDLA's website under Upcoming Events, available at <https://www.codla.org/index.php>.

The CDLA Board of Directors will hold its Annual Long-Range Planning Meeting September 6, 2016. Throughout the year, the Board meets the first Tuesday of every month.

CDLA offers dozens of free CLE seminars throughout the calendar year in a "drinks and heavy appetizers" format and those seminars always include an opportunity for networking with other members of the defense bar.

CDLA also offers access to a members-only Listserv and database, conducts legislative monitoring and lobbying on behalf of the civil defense bar, and hosts regular networking events.

For more information about the CDLA, how to become a member, and about upcoming events, please check the CDLA's website and the various social media links listed below.
